February brings much adult learning at B’nai Tikvah

B’nai Tikvah, the South Area Jewish Congregation located in Canton, invites the community to join its many virtual programs during the month of February. Upcoming programs include:

February 7 at 11 a.m.: “The Golden Age of the Jews in Spain” — a virtual tour of Cordoba led by Keshet Israel Educator Kayla Ship and presented in collaboration with Suburban South Hadassah and Temple B’nai Shalom of Braintree. (Sunday, February 7, at 11 a.m.)

February 12-13: “Jewish Responses to Disruptive Change” — a Shabbaton with Temple Aliyah in Needham and Scholar-in-Residence Noam Zion. Sessions include “The Power of Sisterhood in the Face of Oppression” on Friday at 7:30 p.m. and “What Queen Esther and Rosa Parks Had in Common” on Saturday after services at 12:30 p.m.

February 19: “Finding Our Grit and Grace Beyond Midlife” — a presentation following 7 p.m. services led by Rabbi Dayle Friedman, spiritual guide and social innovator.

February 20: Soul Stroll — a Shabbat hike during which we explore nature and discuss the weekly Torah portion. Participation is limited; reservations are necessary.

February 20 & 27 at 9 a.m.: “Exploring the Poets of Andalusia” — Hebrew Poetry with Marvin Wolfert.

Week of February 20: Purim Joy — celebrating the holiday of Purim with daily programming including baking, games, music, a debate between Purim characters, and both a traditional and fun megillah reading.

In addition to the above special programs, B’nai Tikvah offers a variety of ongoing services and study sessions on Zoom, including weekday evening Minyan services at 7:30 p.m., Friday evening Shabbat services at 6 p.m., Saturday morning Shabbat services at 10 a.m., and Starbucks Shabbat discussion group on Saturdays at noon. Rabbi Leonard Gordon leads two adult education classes: Re-reading the Bible on Mondays at noon and Exploring Ideas of God on Wednesdays at 8 p.m.

Prospective members and those interested in attending any of these programs are invited to try them out at no charge. B’nai Tikvah is currently offering discounted new member pricing of $118. For more information or for Zoom links to attend programs, please contact B’nai Tikvah at 781-828-5250 or theoffice@bnaitkvhma.org.
